

Scotland's Futures Forum: Summer Programme 2018

Scotland 2030: Work in a Gender Equal Scotland

Tuesday 5 June, 6pm to 7.30pm, the Scottish Parliament

The Futures Forum's investigation into Scotland's culture and society in the future continues with a discussion of our working lives in 2030.

Join an expert panel for a discussion on the future of work, the changes we might see in Scotland, and the opportunities for building an economy and country that enables and enhances gender equality. What would have to change about our lives, both at work and outside?

With input from Jo Salter of PwC on their "Workforce of the Future" project, and an expert perspective on the role of women in business from Jo-Anne Chidley, founder of Beauty Kitchen and Women's Enterprise Scotland ambassador, this debate will explore what Scotland in 2030 without a gender pay gap would look like.

Chaired by Gillian Martin MSP

Email ScotlandsFuturesForum@parliament.scot to reserve a place

Part of the Futures Forum's Scotland 2030 Programme

Autonomous Vehicles: Opportunities for Glasgow

Early July, Glasgow

Are autonomous vehicles the future? How well developed are they already, what is likely to happen next, and how can Glasgow exploit the opportunities they present?

Join a panel of experts, including leading thinkers from the engineering industry, to discuss the future of self-driving cars and more.

Chaired by Ivan McKee MSP

Email ScotlandsFuturesForum@parliament.scot to reserve a place

Further details to follow. Organised in conjunction with Jacobs Ltd.

All events are open to the public but numbers may be limited.

If you are interested in attending, email ScotlandsFuturesForum@parliament.scot

For more information, visit www.scotlandfutureforum.org or follow us on @ScotFutures

