

Scotland's Futures Forum: Spring Programme 2019

Scotland 2030: A Citizen's Income?

Tuesday 2 April, 6pm to 8pm, the Scottish Parliament

With predictions of social and economic upheaval brought about by technological and environmental change, could a citizen's income reduce poverty and increase people's control over their lives? How affordable is it as a policy?

Featuring input from Citizen's Basic Income Network Scotland and the Social Insurance Institution of Finland, and using new research from Edinburgh and Heriot-Watt Universities to start the debate, this event will consider whether a citizen's income is realistic for the future.

Chaired by Alex Rowley MSP, Co-Convenor of the Cross-Party Group on Basic Income.

More information: www.scotlandfutureforum.org/scotland-2030-a-citizens-income/
Registration: www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/scotland-2030-a-citizens-income-registration-55559922223 (Eventbrite account not required)

Scotland 2030: A Sustainable Future for Rural Scotland

Tuesday 14 May, 6pm to 8pm, the Scottish Parliament

With rural areas predicted to continue to lose their populations, how can we build a future for rural Scotland that is sustainable for both the environment and the communities who live there?

Join an expert panel featuring Megan MacInnes from the Scottish Land Commission and Dr Calum MacLeod from Community Land Scotland to hear about new research from the Institute for Heritage and Sustainable Human Development and explore the the future we want for 2030.

Chaired by Claudia Beamish MSP, Scotland Futures Forum Director

More information: www.scotlandfutureforum.org/scotland-2030-a-sustainable-future-for-rural-scotland/
Registration: www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/scotland-2030-a-sustainable-future-for-rural-scotland-registration-58587777620 (Eventbrite account not required)

Later in the year...

Scotland 2030: Leadership in Education | Tue 11 Jun, 5.45pm

The Futures Forum and the Goodison Group in Scotland continue their exploration of schooling and learning in the future. Chaired by Sir Andrew Cubie, Scotland's Futures Forum Director

Email ScotlandsFuturesForum@parliament.scot to register your interest

Scotland 2030: Communities and Regeneration | Wed 26 Jun, 6pm

Chaired by Stuart McMillan MSP, Scotland's Futures Forum Director, this event will consider the role of communities in the regeneration of their local areas.

Email ScotlandsFuturesForum@parliament.scot to register your interest

These events are part of the Futures Forum's Scotland 2030 Programme, an exploration of Scotland's culture and society in 2030 and beyond

More information: www.scotlandfutureforum.org & @ScotFutures